Members of the city council met yesterday afternoon and went to Sheridan avenue to inspect Carpenter's run, the course of which it is proposed to change. Engineer Kelly and F. H. Croxall, the latter owning land over which the run traverses, immediately north of Sheridan avenue, and who had made the proposition to council at the meeting Tuesday night to enter into a deal whereby the course of the run could be changed so that there would be no danger of the street being washed out.

All of the solons agreed that it would be a good thing for the street if the course of the run was changed. Mr. Croxall proposed to pay half the expense of putting in a barricade if the city would pay the other half.

After making the inspection the councilmen repaired to the city hall and held an adjourned session. After considerable discussion a motion was finally passed accepting the proposition of Mr. Croxall and placing the work in the hands of the city engineer and the street committee. The work is to be done whenever the weather is suitable, but the city is not expected to pay its share until spring. It is estimated that the expense of the work of changing the course of the run will be between $300 and $400.

The finance committee of council has also been looking after the finances of the city. The city has been paying 7 per cent interest on the money that has been paid as its share of the street improvements that have been made and the finance committee has been looking for some method of reducing this interest. It was finally decided to issue bonds in the sum of $50,000 for the purpose of reducing this interest and extending the time of payment.

A resolution was introduced and adopted authorizing the mayor and city clerk to have prepared and offer for sale $50,000 worth of the city's bonds to bear interest at 5 per cent. These bonds will run for 20 years dating from January 7, 1902, but will be redeemable at any time the council may wish to do so.

A motion was also passed instructing the engineer and street committee to order the street railway company to proceed immediately with the filling in of their portion of the roadway at the new bridge at Dry Run. The city has now filled in on its side sufficiently to make a suitable driveway and the fact that the street railway company has not done the same leaves the bridge yet in a very dangerous condition. The street railway company will have to make this fill immediately or the council will build a barricade which will prevent accidents to teams and which will also prevent the cars being run over the bridge.

ONCE ARRESTED AT MARIETTA

But Was Released Before the Proper Authorities Got Hold of Him.
Came Here And Was Located By a
Local Attorney And Constable.

After being chased over the country for nearly two months, Nathaniel Gould, alias Warren Gould, Luckadoo and McCormick, was captured by Constable C. D. Powell, of this city, and C. W. Matthews, a deputy sheriff of Vinton, Gallia county, yesterday at noon.

The capture was made at the home of H. R. Mansfield, near the camp grounds, and the prisoner was taken away last evening by the deputy to answer to a charge of horse stealing. Matthews is proprietor of a livery stable at Vinton, and it was his property—a team of fine horses and a surrey—that was stolen by Gould.

According to the story told by Matthews, Gould hired the rig to drive to Gallipolis. He was expected to return the same evening, but after two days' waiting Matthews, in company with other officers, started out in search of the missing rig and driver.

On reaching Gallipolis the officers learned that the man they wanted had left for Marietta. Making their way to that city they were informed that Gould had crossed the river and escaped into West Virginia. The search was continued with the result the discovery was made that the rig had been sold. The officers, however, got both the horses and surrey and then returned home.

A few days later Gould showed up in Marietta, and was placed under arrest by the marshal of that city. Matthews was notified of the arrest, but as he was late in arriving at Marietta, Gould was released from custody just a half hour before Matthews appeared at the Marietta police headquarters.

In the meantime Gould had again crossed the river and proceeded up as far as Wheeling, where he crossed again to Bridgeport. All trace of him was then lost, but as it was known he had an uncle living near Achon, this county, it was suspected he might come this way.

About a week ago Matthews saw a letter in Vinton dated at Achon, which he suspected was from Gould. The following day he communicated with Attorney Mackall, of this city, asking him to keep a lookout for Gould and a few days ago the man was located.

Chief Thompson and the local officers were about to lay hands on the man, but as no warrant was received here, it was decided to send for Matthews, which was done. He arrived yesterday, and in company with Constable Powell, went to the Mansfield home, where Gould had been working, and there took him in charge.

The prisoner was considerably surprised when arrested, and objected strenuously to having the handcuffs placed on his wrists. However, he soon became reconciled and made a full confession to Constable Powell. He admitted that he sold the horses and surrey and expects to be prosecuted.

Mr. Mansfield, who had Gould in his employ, was not aware of the young man's crime, and was very much surprised to learn of the circumstance. Gould had been driving Mansfield's milk wagon and doing chores about the premises.

Not long after his arrival in this city, Gould, who is a married man, and whose wife is living in Vinton, consulted Justice McLane with a view of obtaining a marriage license to wed a widow whose name is said to be McGarry, and who is employed by Mr. Mansfield. For some unknown reason he did not apply for the license, and thus escaped a possible chance of being prosecuted for bigamy.

Gould is a young man and is said to be of a prominent and respectable family.

These bonds will run for 20 years dating from January 7, 1902, but will be redeemable at any time the council may wish to do so.

This is a portion of the 25,000 acres, some of which lies in adjoining counties, the coal rights of which were recently obtained by Campbell, who is a Cometsburg butcher, for $18 per acre.

Campbell is transferring his interests to the syndicate for $20 an acre.

CRADLE SONGS

Entertainment Given at First Presbyterian Church Was a Success.

The "Cradle Songs of Many Nations," given by the Buds of Promise Children's Missionary society at the First Presbyterian church, was an exceptionally fine entertainment and a large crowd was present.

It was under the direction of Mrs. W. H. Vodrey, whose efforts were crowned with success.

A unique feature was the representation of Italy by Miss Mary Hill, who had two Second street Italian children in the cast.

Africa was represented by George and Corine Smith, colored, who presented a comic rendition similar to a cake walk.

The closing number was a "Good Night" song by Misses Sarah Thompson, Margaret Blythe, Alma Cartwright, Sarah Vodrey and Olive Kerr. A chorus number of 40 voices was appreciated.

Mrs. Alfred T. Kelly was accompanist and rendered felicitous service at the piano.

ONCE ARRESTED AT MARIETTA

But Was Released Before the Proper
Authorities Got Hold of Him.
Came Here And Was Located By a
Local Attorney And Constable.

After being chased over the country for nearly two months, Nathaniel Gould, alias Warren Gould, Lockadoo and McCormick, was captured by Constable C. D. Powell, of this city, and C. W. Matthews, a deputy sheriff of Vinton, Gallia county, yesterday at noon.

The capture was made at the home of H. R. Mansfield, near the camp grounds, and the prisoner was taken away last evening by the deputy to answer to a charge of horse stealing. Matthews is proprietor of a livery stable at Vinton, and it was his property—a team of fine horses and a surrey—that was stolen by Gould.

According to the story told by Matthews, Gould hired the rig to drive to Gallipolis. He was expected to return the same evening, but after two days' waiting Matthews, in company with other officers, started out in search of the missing rig and driver.

On reaching Gallipolis the officers learned that the man they wanted had left for Marietta. Making their way to that city they were informed that Gould had crossed the river and escaped into West Virginia. The search was continued with the result the discovery was made that the rig had been sold. The officers, however, got both the horses and surrey and then returned home.

A few days later Gould showed up in Marietta, and was placed under arrest by the marshal of that city. Matthews was notified of the arrest, but as he was late in arriving at Marietta, Gould was released from custody just a half hour before Matthews appeared at the Marietta police headquarters.

In the meantime Gould had again crossed the river and proceeded up as far as Wheeling, where he crossed again to Bridgeport. All trace of him was then lost, but as it was known he had an uncle living near Achon, this county, it was suspected he might come this way.

About a week ago Matthews saw a letter in Vinton dated at Achon, which he suspected was from Gould. The following day he communicated with Attorney Mackall, of this city, asking him to keep a lookout for Gould and a few days ago the man was located.

Chief Thompson and the local officers were about to lay hands on the man, but as no warrant was received here, it was decided to send for Matthews, which was done. He arrived yesterday, and in company with Constable Powell, went to the Mansfield home, where Gould had been working, and there took him in charge.

The prisoner was considerably surprised when arrested, and objected strenuously to having the handcuffs placed on his wrists. However, he soon became reconciled and made a full confession to Constable Powell. He admitted that he sold the horses and surrey and expects to be prosecuted.

Mr. Mansfield, who had Gould in his employ, was not aware of the young man's crime, and was very much surprised to learn of the circumstance. Gould had been driving Mansfield's milk wagon and doing chores about the premises.

Not long after his arrival in this city, Gould, who is a married man, and whose wife is living in Vinton, consulted Justice McLane with a view of obtaining a marriage license to wed a widow whose name is said to be McGarry, and who is employed by Mr. Mansfield. For some unknown reason he did not apply for the license, and thus escaped a possible chance of being prosecuted for bigamy.

Gould is a young man and is said to be of a prominent and respectable family.

A PETITION

East End Residents Are Talking of Presenting One to Council.

It is probable that a petition will be presented to the council by East End citizens requesting the city to have the streets which the East Liverpool line has obstructed beyond the loop put in passable condition.

Citizens of that community have suffered the obstruction to vehicles, believing that the company would again put the streets in as good a condition as they found them and would operate cars on the extension for the convenience of the people in the outlying districts.

The East Liverpool line has done neither, although it has had a stretch of the extension completed for a few weeks. Cars, a portion of the time, do not run as far east as the loop.

All of these things are aggravating the people and they propose to obtain redress through the medium of the council, which they think should take the matter in hand.

Suspicious Characters.

Three suspicious looking strangers loomed around the East End Wednesday evening. The strangers walked through the streets and alleys, making a close scrutiny of different residences and places of business. One of the men is described as having the appearance of the burglar who entered the house of John Hendershott resulted and was frightened away by the screams of Miss Etta Hendershott.

Sewing Bee.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Erie street M. E. church held a sewing bee yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Emeline Hamilton, corner of Ohio avenue and Mulberry streets. In the evening a supper and festival was given at which there was a large attendance.

A party was given last night at the residence of John Smith in Helena, in honor of Miss Lizzie Smith. About 40 young people were present and the evening was spent in dancing. A luncheon was served and it was a happy event.

DRUG CLERK HELD ON CHARGE OF NEGLIGENCE.

Pittsburg, Nov. 15.—Edgar Dixon, a drug clerk, employed at a store in Brighton avenue, Allegheny, was held by a coroner's jury to await the action of the December grand jury, on a charge of criminal negligence. CIVIL SERVICE PRINCIPLES FOR OUR ISLANDS.

Washington, Nov. 15.—President Roosevelt announced that in making civil appointments in the insular possessions of the United States he would adhere to the principles of the civil service. He declared this policy to Clinton Rodgers Woodruff, of Philadelphia, of the National Civil Service Reform league.

MRS. ROOSEVELT'S GOWNS.

Story That They Cost Only Three Hundred Dollars a Year is Denied.

Mrs. Roosevelt has been subjected to much annoyance by an interview purporting to have been had with her in the White House printed in several newspapers about a fortnight ago and copied all over the country and abroad, says the Washington correspondent of the New York Herald.

In this publication the wife of the president was made to say that she dressed on $300 a year and to go into details as to how she "made over" her gowns. It was also told that Mrs. Roosevelt made her children's clothes last by passing Teddy's outgrown suits to Kermit and then on to Quentin.

The absurdity of this was patent to all of Mrs. Roosevelt's acquaintances, but there were hundreds of thousands of persons who did not see it in that light. The White House mail has been deluged with letters from women addressed to the president's wife asking for information as to how she had been able in the past and how she can now as the wife of the chief magistrate, when she will have to attend so many dinners, teas, etc., get along on $300 a year. Farmers' wives in the far west wanted to know how she could make one suit do for three romping boys.

The story traveled so far, was so generally believed and the annoyance became so great that a denial of the yarn has been made at the White House.

Mrs. Roosevelt's private matters are her own, but it is palpably absurd that she should limit her wardrobe to $300 or any sum near that, and it is equally absurd that her wardrobe and its price should be discussed at all.

Mrs. Roosevelt spends as much more than $300 a year for dress as her station and taste demand.

Blankets.

To clean flannel blankets a good way is to put two tablespoonfuls of borax and a pint of soft soap into cold water sufficient to cover the blankets. When the borax and soap have dissolved, put in the blankets and let them stand overnight. The next day rub them out, rinse in two waters and hang them to dry. Never wring them.

Blankets.

To clean flannel blankets a good way is to put two tablespoonfuls of borax and a pint of soft soap into cold water sufficient to cover the blankets. When the borax and soap have dissolved, put in the blankets and let them stand over night. The next day rub them out, rinse in two waters and hang them to dry. Never wring them.

LESS FOR MISSIONS.

M. E. Committee Made Cut of 8 Per Cent In Appropriations,

BUT WITH SOME EXCEPTIONS.

Rev. Dr. Buckley Said He Believed, as Did John Wesley, That Heathen Were Saved, if They Lived Up to Their Light.

Pittsburg, Nov. 15.—"I may be a heretic, but if so, I am with John Wesley," said the Rev. Dr. J. M. Buckley, during a speech yesterday morning at the meeting of the general missionary committee of the Methodist Episcopal church. He proceeded to declare:

Heathen Not Necessarily Damned.

"I do not believe that the whole heathen world is going down to hell if we do not reach them. No man has a right to say that. If the heathen live up to the light they have they are marching straight to heaven, and if they do not they will be on the road to a just judgment.

"The foreigners coming into this country are worse and worse, and those coming now in great numbers are the most dangerous that ever came into any country. Two thousand Mormons are now at work, as they have a right to be under our constitution, and the only way we can meet them is by proclaiming the truth."

The debate was up over the percentage to be allowed of the appropriation to home and foreign work.

Colonel Edward L. Dobbins moved that the percentage be 43 to home missions and 57 to foreign. Dr. Buckley opposed taking one cent off the foreign appropriations.

The discussion continued and a vote was forced under a move for the previous question, by General Rusling, backed up by Dr. Buckley. Much wrangling occurred over points of order. The venerable Bishop E. E. Andrews cleared the deck of all amendments and Colonel Dobbins' motion carried by a large vote. The colonel then warned the committee of the danger of making over appropriations and he moved, "When we are forced to make a cut, it shall be horizontal."

This motion brought on such a warm discussion that the colonel withdrew it, under fire.

Bishop Fowler Tock the Floor.

Bishop Charles H. Fowler took the floor and said: "It is not entirely right to appropriate only $30,000 this year for incidental expenses, when last year we spent $55,000 for the purpose. It means the margin will be piled up for debt for next year, as sure as fate." The bishop moved reconsideration, and a motion to table this went down on a vote of 17 to 23. Bishop Fowler moved for an appropriation of $43,000 for incidental expenses. Bishop Goodsell opposed it on the ground that $10,000 were spent last year on account of the trouble in China, and this would not occur again, but Homer Eaton insisted: "It is not possible for us to get along this year with less money than last year."

$40,000 Set Apart.

Homer Eaton declared: "Just as sure as you appropriate only $30,000, you will increase the debt $15,000 for next year." On this motion, after a long debate, $40,000 was set apart by a vote of 27 to 19.

Other appropriations were made as follows: $36,000 for salaries of officers and missionary bishops; $32,000 for disseminating literature; $6,180 for expense of field secretary for young people's work.

The devotional services were conducted yesterday morning by the Rev. Dr. Henry A. Munroe, of Philadelphia. Bishop J. W. Hamilton presided during the morning session and Bishop S. M. Merrill in the afternoon. It was a day of earnest discussion. Sometimes the bishops were spurred to duty. The Rev. Dr. Buckley reminded Bishop Waldron that he had not held a meeting on Bulgaria during the year, and had a meeting called.

The afternoon session was presided over by Bishop S. M. Merrill. The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. G. W. Isham. The session was occupied almost entirely with the appropriations and the discussion of the applicants' petitions.

Platform Meetings Held Last Night.

The great platform meetings of the series were held last night. In Emory church General J. F. Rusling presided and the address was made by Bishop Joyce, on "Work in the Orient," the Rev. Dr. W. F. Oldham, on "Southern Asia," and the Rev. F. D. Gamewell, on "The Siege of Pekin."

In the North Avenue church, Allegheny, the Rev. Dr. S. W. Thomas presided. The Rev. Dr. A. F. Camphor, of Africa, spoke, also Bishop McCabe, on "Spanish America," and Dr. Buckley on "Home Missions."

The Loyal Temperance Legion, a workers' adjunct of the main body, met at St. Paul's M. E. church, in charge of Miss Margaret Wintringer, of Chicago. The chief interest centered in the reports of the secretaries, telling of the progress of the temperance work in the past year. They were very satisfactory. The editorial association was in session in the First Baptist church. The editors of 15 state publications of the W. C. T. U. participated.

Miss Dow, of Maine, presided. A paper was read by Miss Margaret Suddeth, editor of the Union Signal, defining the relations that should exist between state and national publications.

Pittsburg, Nov. 15.—The national headquarters of the United Boys' Brigade of America will be moved from Chicago to Pittsburg. This was decided on at the meeting of the national council, in the chapel of the First Presbyterian church. Colonel H. P. Bope, of the Third Pennsylvania Boys' Brigade regiment, and vice president of the Carnegie Steel company, was chosen commander-in-chief of the national organization, and Lieutenant Colonel John A. Clark, of the Third regiment, and vice president of the Frick-Lindsay company, was chosen adjutant general. Major General Henry F. Spicer, of Philadelphia, was elected one of the national trustees.

At the eighth annual meeting of the Pennsylvania division of the Boys' Brigade, in Central Presbyterian church, Allegheny, Major General Spicer will be re-elected commander of the Pennsylvania division.

RATHBUN HELD WITHOUT BOND.

An Officer and Acquaintance From Little Rock Identified Him.

Jeffersonville, Ind., Nov. 15.—Newell C. Rathbun, suspected of killing Charles Goodman in a hotel here by poison, was positively identified by an officer and an acquaintance of the prisoner from Little Rock, Ark., where he lived for a time. Later Rathbun was arraigned before Mayor Rader in the police station on a charge of murder. Rathbun pleaded not guilty and Mayor Rader held him over to the circuit court without bond. The prisoner had no lawyer.

The circuit court will convene in special term Monday and a grand jury will be empanelled to consider Rathbun's case.

The prisoner is becoming less talkative and evidently realizes that he already has talked too much, but he is reported to have said to a fellow prisoner in the jail: "The officers haven't a thing on which to convict. A man's intention does not mean he may be convicted."

MOLINEUX CASE ARGUED.

Two Former Governors Appear as Opposing Counsel.

New York, Nov. 15.—Two former governors of New York, David B. Hill and Frank S. Black, met in argument yesterday in the court of general sessions on the motion to quash the indictment charging Roland B. Molineux with the murder by mailed poison, of Mrs. Katherine J. Adams. Molineux was once convicted and sentenced to death, but the court of appeals gave him a new trial for error on the part of the trial court.

Mr. Hill, associated with Assistant District Attorney James Osborne, opposed in behalf of the state the motion to quash, and Mr. Black joined with Weeks, Battle and Marshall and former District Attorney W. M. K. O'Keefe, in pressing the motion in behalf of the alleged poisoner.

General Edward Molineux, father of the prisoner, came to court in company with General Horatio C. King and Frederick W. Devoe and joined the counsel of his son.

A Street Parable.

A little girl stood at a window blowing soap bubbles. Beneath stood a little boy, and as she blew bubbles toward him he tried to catch them. They broke and disappeared on all sides, but the two laughed and kept up the game, she smiling down and he gazing upward eagerly.

"Behold, a parable!" said a man to a woman. "The eternal relation of the sexes! You blow beautiful bubbles down to us from your height, and we weary ourselves in trying vainly to catch them. Poor little boy!"

The pair played and laughed in the sunshine until the boy grew tired. He called out "Goodbye!" gayly and ran away to play with other boys and girls in the street. The girl looked after him wistfully, a shadow on her face. She did not care to blow bubbles any more. She leaned out to watch him, and as she did so she tipped over the bowl of soapy water. She looked very lonely. "Behold, a parable!" said the woman to the man. "He has tired of the game; not she. There is no other little boy to blow bubbles to, and if there were she has no pretty bubbles left to blow. Eternal relation of sexes! Poor little girl!"—New York Tribune.

Fire Among Savage Nations.

According to Pliny fire was a long time unknown to some of the ancient Egyptian tribes, and when a celebrated astronomer made them acquainted with that element and how to produce it they were wild with delight. The Persians, Phoenicians, Greeks and several other nations acknowledge that their ancestors were once without the comforts which fire bestows; the Chinese confess the same of their progenitors. Pompanon, Mola, Plutarch and other ancient writers speak of nations which, at the time when they wrote, knew not the use of fire or had just recently learned it.

The inhabitants of the Marian Islands, which were discovered in 1551, had no idea of fire or its uses. Their astonishment knew no bounds when they saw it applied to wood, most of them taking it to be some kind of an animal which the sailors had brought with them and which must be fed on wood.

Jeffersonville, Ind., Nov. 15.—Newell C. Rathbun, suspected of killing Charles Goodman in a hotel here by poison, was positively identified by an officer and an acquaintance of the prisoner from Little Rock, Ark., where he lived for a time. Later Rathbun was arraigned before Mayor Rader in the police station on a charge of murder. Rathbun pleaded not guilty and Mayor Rader held him over to the circuit court without bond. The prisoner had no lawyer. The circuit court will convene in special term Monday and a grand jury will be empaneled to consider Rathbun's case.

The prisoner is becoming less talkative and evidently realizes that he already has talked too much, but he is reported to have said to a fellow prisoner in the jail: "The officers haven't a thing on which to convict. A man's intention does not mean he may be convicted."

MOLENEUX CASE ARGUED.

Two Former Governors Appear as Opposing Counsel.

New York, Nov. 15.—Two former governors of New York, David B. Hill and Frank S. Black, met in argument yesterday in the court of general sessions on the motion to quash the indictment charging Roland B. Molineux with the murder, by mailed poison, of Mrs. Katherine J. Adams. Molineux was once convicted and sentenced to death, but the court of appeals gave him a new trial for error on the part of the trial court.

Mr. Hill, associated with Assistant District Attorney James Osborne, opposed in behalf of the state the motion to quash, and Mr. Black joined with Weeks, Battle and Marshall and former District Attorney W. M. K. O'Brien, in pressing the motion in behalf of the alleged poisoner.

General Edward Molineux, father of the prisoner, came to court in company with General Horatio C. King and Frederick W. Devoe and joined the counsel of his son.

Henry Werries, of North Baltimore, killed one of his cows Wednesday to put her out of misery. In her stomach he found scrap iron, nails, spoons, gravel and other indigestible stuff. Some of the articles found in the animal's stomach had been mysteriously missing for some time. The cow's illness was caused by the nails puncturing the walls of the stomach.

A Street Parable.

A little girl stood at a window blowing soap bubbles. Beneath stood a little boy, and as she blew bubbles toward him he tried to catch them. They broke and disappeared on all sides, but the two laughed and kept up the game, she smiling down and he gazing upward eagerly.

"Behold, a parable!" said a man to a woman. "The eternal relation of the sexes! You blow beautiful bubbles down to us from your height, and we weary ourselves in trying vainly to catch them. Poor little boy!"

The pair played and laughed in the sunshine until the boy grew tired. He called out "Goodbye!" gayly and ran away to play with other boys and girls in the street. The girl looked after him wistfully, a shadow on her face. She did not care to blow bubbles any more. She leaned out to watch him, and as she did so she tipped over the bowl of soapy water. She looked very lonely.

"Behold, a parable!" said the woman to the man. "He has tired of the game; not she. There is no other little boy to blow bubbles to, and if there were she has no pretty bubbles left to blow. Eternal relation of sexes! Poor little girl!"—New York Tribune.

Fire Among Savage Nations.

According to Pliny fire was a long time unknown to some of the ancient Egyptian tribes, and when a celebrated astronomer made them acquainted with that element and how to produce it they were wild with delight. The Persians, Phoenicians, Greeks and several other nations acknowledge that their ancestors were once without the comforts which fire bestows; the Chinese confess the same of their progenitors. Pompanon, Mola, Plutarch and other ancient writers speak of nations which, at the time when they wrote, knew not the use of fire or had just recently learned it.

The inhabitants of the Marian Islands, which were discovered in 1551, had no idea of fire or its uses. Their astonishment knew no bounds when they saw it applied to wood, most of them taking it to be some kind of an animal which the sailors had brought with them and which must be fed on wood.

An Apt Definition.

Jumped on a Ten-Penny Nail.

The little daughter of Mr. J. N. Powell jumped on an inverted rake made of ten penny nails, and thrust one nail entirely through her foot and a second one half way through. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was promptly applied and five minutes later the pain had disappeared and no more suffering was experienced. In three days the child was wearing her shoe as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. Mr. Powell is a well known merchant of Forkland, Va. Pain Balm is an anti-septic and heals such injuries without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. For sale by Alvin H. Bulger, druggist.

France was highly pleased with the reply of the United States to its question as to how this country will regard her coercion of Turkey. That reply was, "It is no business of ours." It is to be hoped that the European powers fully understand the significance of these words. They mean that, if it should become necessary for the United States to bring the sultan to terms with a similar display of force—a thing by no means improbable—we expect France and the remainder of Europe to consider it none of their business—especially as this country cannot be suspected of any desire to acquire Turkish territory.

Such men as Addicks do not add honor to the party to which they belong.

A South Africa correspondent says the British officers are fonder of playing golf and cricket than of chasing the enemy, and that on two occasions the Boers have stolen up on them while they were tramping around the golf field. This would suggest that it would be a brilliant scheme to interest the wily Boer in the game of golf and have the battles fought with golf sticks.

AT THE THEATER

Russian nobles, soldiers, serfs, members of the secret police and task masters in the Siberian mines, together with a number of political convicts, will throng the stage at the new Grand opera house November 19, when the new Russo-Siberian play, "For Her Sake," will be the attraction and one of the promised novelties of the season. The company is a strong one and embraces the best available talent, including Frederick Montague and others.

Renfrow's Jolly Pathfinders last evening at the Grand presented "The Lightning Express" to a large and appreciative audience. The play was a splendid one and was very ably presented.

While in New York the other day, whither he went to cast his vote, President Roosevelt received an especially cordial greeting from the police, over whom he some years ago presided as commissioner. At the Jersey City ferry the president and party left their carriages and walked on board the ferryboat, which had only a few other passengers. Drawn up on the boat were four policemen of the harbor squad, detailed as a guard. The president returned their salute as he walked aboard the boat, and then noticing one of them a smile of pleasure crossed his face, and walking up to him he held out his hand.

"Hello, Thompson," he said. "I appointed you, didn't I?" "Yes, you did, Mr. President," said Thompson, "and I'm mighty proud of it."

"He also fined me five days' pay once," said Thompson, after the president had passed, "but I'm kind of tickled at that too."

Sheriff Accommodated Him. Sheriff Fred Underhill of Broome county, N. Y., was awakened in the jail at midnight by some one knocking at the prison entrance. He opened the door and found big John Carey, who had escaped last June, standing there, asking if he might return and serve out his sentence for burglary. He was accommodated.

Where She Differed From Paul. A Scotch clergyman called upon a parishioner not long since, an old woman who was not blessed with many virtues, but who possessed a very varied assortment of vices. He took the latter as a text for a sermon and spoke to her at considerable length upon the subject, concluding with some extracts from one of St. Paul's epistles which he felt to be apropos.

She didn't speak for several minutes after he had finished, and he thought that he had made an impression upon her at last. He was mistaken, however, for she suddenly turned round with the remark: "Humph! That's just where Paul and I have differed these ten years."

A MILLION FROM MEXICO.

Catholic Prelates Urge United States to Collect Big Claim.

To obtain $1,000,000 is the object of a letter to President Roosevelt made by Archbishop Riordan of California and Archbishop Ireland of Minnesota, says the Washington correspondent of the New York Herald. This sum is a claim of the Catholic church against Mexico, and it is understood that the prelates are seeking to induce the United States to renew its efforts to persuade Mexico to pay the money.

Before the acquisition of upper California by the United States the Catholic churches of upper and lower California had on deposit with the Mexican government money and property aggregating a very large total, upon which the Mexican government was obliged to pay the churches interest. In the case of the churches of upper California this interest amounted to almost $50,000 a year. Interest payments ceased after the Mexican war.

This claim of the church for interest unpaid came before the Mexican claims commission after a lapse of twenty years and was allowed. The award was paid by the Mexican government, but since then there have been no further payments of interest, and the purpose is now to press for a settlement of this account. Negotiations have been carried on between Washington and Mexico for some years, but there have been no exchanges of recent date.

The Mexican government has not shown any disposition to avoid a settlement, but bases its failure to pay interest upon the broad claim that the award by the Mexican claims commission to the claimants of a sum aggregating nearly $1,000,000 served legally as a settlement in full.

FOUND A NEW SECT.

Former Methodist Clergyman Believes Millennium is Near.

The Rev. B. F. Weatherwax, formerly of this city, has withdrawn from the Methodist Episcopal conference and has founded a new religious denomination, which up to date has six members, says a Syracuse dispatch.

It is called the "Little Flock," and the headquarters are at Cortland. The sect claims to have no creed but the Bible and is held together by divine love. It believes that it is a chosen people.

Mr. Weatherwax says that the Lord more than 2,000 years ago gave through the prophet Daniel a clear description of the times in which we are now living, and he thinks that the time of the blessing for which God's people have prayed so long is very near at hand and that the wheat and the tares will soon be separated and that soon a great time of trouble will overthrow existing institutions and usher in Christ's kingdom of peace and equity.

All Charged but the Cork.

A good story is told of a digger who had ridden into a Western Australian town to consult a doctor. Having done so, he went to have the prescription made up.

"How much is this lot?" he asked the chemist.

"Well, let me see," was the reply. "There's seven and sixpence for the medicine and a shilling for the bottle." He hesitated, uncertain whether he had charged for everything.

"Oh, hurry up, boss," said the impatient miner; "put a price on the cork and let us know the worst."—London Tit-Bits.

FORTY MORE WARSHIPS.

Recommendations of the Naval Board of Construction.

Over and above the four warships for which congress at the last session directed him to prepare plans as a basis for appropriation at the next session Secretary Long has before him the recommendations of the board on naval construction looking to authorization by congress of the building of forty more naval vessels of all classes, from battleships down to tugboats. The plans for the two armored cruisers and two battleships authorized by congress at the last session already have been prepared and look to the construction of battleships of about 16,000 tons and cruisers of 14,000 tons. The battleships and cruisers in addition to these which the construction board proposes probably will be of about the same size and general type. The board's complete plan is as follows:

Three seagoing battleships of about 16,000 tons displacement.

Two armored cruisers of about 14,500 tons displacement.

Six gunboats of about 1,200 tons.

Six gunboats of about 600 tons.

Six gunboats of about 200 tons.

Two colliers of about 15,000 tons.

One repair ship of about 7,500 tons.

Six training ships of about 2,000 tons.

Four picket boats of about 650 tons.

Four tugboats.

While the above appears to be a startling amount of naval construction to recommend to congress, it is said that it is, after all, nearly a repetition of the programme submitted to that body through Secretary Long by the construction board last year and is even smaller than the aggregate tonnage proposed to be authorized by the general or Dewey board. In each case, it is explained, the recommendations are only the steps necessary to carry out the general policy of providing for the United States a modern navy of sufficient strength and made up of harmonious units. This policy was thought out carefully by the two boards, and if it is carried out as proposed they declare that the symmetrical navy finally provided will be much more effective than the more numerous navies of several of the European nations.

Now that Addicks has been turned down by President Roosevelt it is to be hoped that Delaware has seen the last of him as an aspirant for political honors. For years Addicks has made an effort to reach the United States senate by using his money, but on every occasion have the people of Delaware, regardless of party affiliations, compelled him to take a back seat and endeavored to convince him that they cannot be bought. Such men as Addicks do not add honor to the party to which they belong.

A South Africa correspondent says
 the British officers are fonder of playing golf and cricket than of chasing
 the enemy, and that on two occasions
 the Boers have stolen up on them
 while they were tramping around the golf field. This would suggest that it would be a brilliant scheme to interest the wily Boer in the game of golf and have the battles fought with golf sticks.

AT THE THEATER

Russian nobles, soldiers, serfs, members of the secret police and task masters in the Siberian mines, together with a number of political convicts, will throng the stage at the new Grand opera house November 19,
 when the new Russo-Siberian play,
 "For Her Sake," will be the attraction and one of the promised novelties of the season. The company is a strong one and embraces the best available talent, including Frederick Montague and others.

Renfrow's Jolly Pathfinders last evening at the Grand presented "The Lightning Express" to a large and appreciative audience. The play was a splendid one and was very ably presented.

Glad He Was Fined.

While in New York the other day,
 whither he went to cast his vote, President Roosevelt received an especially cordial greeting from the police, over whom he some years ago presided as commissioner. At the Jersey City ferry the president and party left their carriages and walked on board the ferryboat, which had only a few other passengers. Drawn up on the boat were four policemen of the harbor
 squad, detailed as a guard. The president returned their salute as he walked aboard the boat, and then noticing one of them a smile of pleasure crossed his face, and walking up to him he held out his hand.

"Hello, Thompson," he said. "I appointed you, didn't I?"
 "Yes, you did, Mr. President," said
 Thompson, "and I'm mighty proud of it."
 "He also fined me five days' pay
 once," said Thompson, after the president had passed, "but I'm kind of tickled at that too."

Sheriff Accommodated Him.

 his sentence for burglary. He was accommodated.

Where She Differed From Paul.

A Scotch clergyman called upon a paragon of long since, an old woman who was not blessed with many virtues, but who possessed a very varied assortment of vices. He took the latter as a text for a sermon and spoke to her at considerable length upon the subject, concluding with some extracts from one of St. Paul's epistles which he felt to be apropos.

She didn't speak for several minutes
 after he had finished, and he thought that he had made an impression upon her at last. He was mistaken, however, for she suddenly turned round with the remark: "Humph! That's just where Paul and I have differed these ten years."

The argument was not continued.

A MILLION FROM MEXICO.

Catholic Prelates Urge United States
 to Collect Big Claim.

To obtain $1,000,000 is the object of a visit to President Roosevelt made by Archbishop Riordan of California
 and Archbishop Ireland of Minnesota, says the Washington correspondent of the New York Herald. This sum is a claim of the Catholic church against Mexico, and it is understood that the prelates are seeking to induce the United States to renew its efforts to persuade Mexico to pay the money.

Before the acquisition of upper California by the United States the Catholic churches of upper and lower California had on deposit with the Mexican government money and property
 aggregating a very large total, upon which the Mexican government was obliged to pay the churches interest.
 In the case of the churches of upper California this interest amounted to almost $50,000 a year. Interest payments ceased after the Mexican war.

This claim of the church for interest unpaid came before the Mexican claims commission after a lapse of twenty years and was allowed. The award was paid by the Mexican government, but since then there have been no further payments of interest,
 and the purpose is now to press for
 a settlement of this account. Negotiations have been carried on between Washington and Mexico for some years, but there have been no exchanges of recent date.

The Mexican government has not shown any disposition to avoid a settlement, but bases its failure to pay interest upon the broad claim that the award by the Mexican claims commission to the claimants of a sum aggregating nearly $1,000,000 served legally as a settlement in full.

FOUND A NEW SECT.

Former Methodist Clergyman Believes Millennium Is Near.

The Rev. B. F. Weatherax, formerly of this city, has withdrawn from the Methodist Episcopal conference and has founded a new religious denomination, which up to date has six members, says a Syracuse dispatch.
 It is called the "Little Flock," and the headquarters are at Cortland. The sect claims to have no creed but the Bible and is held together by divine love. It believes that it is a chosen people.

Mr. Weatherax says that the Lord more that 2,000 years ago gave through the prophet Daniel a clear description of the times in which we are now living, and he thinks that the time of the blessing for which God's people have prayed so long is very near at hand and that the wheat and the tares will soon be separated and that soon a great time of trouble will overthrow existing institutions and usher
 in Christ's kingdom of peace and equity.

Forty More Warships.
 Recommendations of the Naval Board of Construction.

Over and above the four warships
 for which congress at the last session
 directed him to prepare plans as a basis for appropriation at the next session Secretary Long has before him
 the recommendations of the board on naval construction looking to authorization by congress of the building of forty more naval vessels of all classes,
 from battleships down to tugboats.

The plans for the two armored cruisers
 and two battleships authorized by congress at the last session already have been prepared and look to the construction of battleships of about 16,000 tons and cruisers of 14,000 tons. The battleships and cruisers in addition to these which the construction board proposes probably will be of about the same size and general type. The board's complete plan is as follows:

Three seagoing battleships of about 16,000 tons displacement.
 Two armored cruisers of about 14,
 500 tons displacement.
 Six gunboats of about 1,200 tons.
 Six gunboats of about 600 tons.
 Six gunboats of about 200 tons.
 Two colliers of about 15,000 tons.
 One repair ship of about 7,500 tons.
 Six training ships of about 2,000
 tons.
 Four picket boats of about 650 tons.
 Four tugboats.

While the above appears to be a startling amount of naval construction to recommend to congress, it is said that it is, after all, nearly a repetition of the programme submitted to that body
 through Secretary Long by the construction board last year and is even smaller than the aggregate tonnage
 proposed to be authorized by the general or Dewey board. In each case, it is explained, the recommendations are only the steps necessary to carry out
 the general policy of providing for the United States a modern navy of sufficient strength and made up of harmonious units. This policy was thought out carefully by the two boards, and if it is carried out as proposed they declare that the symmetrical navy finally provided will be much more effective than the more numerous navies of several of the European nations.

SOUTH SIDE CHESTER SOLONS MET IN SESSION

Ohio Valley Gas Company's Franchise Shorn of Forty of Its Years.

MANY KICKS WERE MADE

By Property Owners Against the Increase in Assessments Which Have Been Added Since Municipal Tax Levy Was Made.

The Chester council last night reduced by amendment, prior to passing to third reading, the Ohio Valley Gas company's franchise from 50 years to 10 years.

Property owners presented in person grievances against increase in assessments.

Councilmen decided to act definitely on the Third street grade at their next meeting.

Initial action was taken providing for regulations and penalties applicable to railway companies.

When the Chester council met last night, after the mayor had shaken hands with the aldermen and other heads of the town, as well as the spectators, he took a seat behind a small square table and proclaimed the opening of the town's legislature. Penalty was postponed on George Arner, who had an engagement at the social hop, for his non-appearance in the chamber of municipal lawmakers, after which Recorder Marshall rattled the minutes in ragtime melody.

The first thing done was to take a fall out of the Ohio Valley Gas company by amending its franchise to be in effect for 10 years instead of 50. Alderman Finley opened the game with a motion to amend the franchise to read 25 years instead of 50. This started a veritable hippodrome in the speech line, each member giving a speech, with the exception of McDonald. It was almost a round robin against the gas company and there was fear for a time that the company would be compelled to tear up its mains and abdicate the town.

W. N. Riley opposed the amendment because he wasn't in favor of so long a franchise as 25 years, and after some well rounded oratorical periods, closing with a recital of Cardinal Wolsey's address to young Cromwell, memorized from Shakespeare's Henry VIII, he proved a statesman.

When Mr. Riley was through with his speech, Marshall promptly arose and moved, as Mr. Finley's motion had received no second, to amend to reduce the life of the franchise to 10 years.

Mr. Finley arose in defense of his position. He admitted that he felt both kindly and unkindly toward the gas company, but felt that his friends were making the thing a little too stout. He explained that the council had a perfect right to reduce the term of years in the franchise, as the informal vote a month ago to pass the ordinance as drafted, was done so, allowing through silent tolerance, the company to lay its mains; but Mr. Finley carefully explained that the term, 50 years, was inserted in the franchise after the discussion and vote had been taken.

It was suggested by Marshall that so long a franchise would interfere with other companies should they choose in time to enter Chester, by giving the Ohio Valley so much of a cinch as 50 years.

Finley argued that no other company was barred from obtaining a franchise and failed to recognize Marshall's address as an especial point.

A vote was taken on Marshall's amendment which had been seconded by Cochran and all voted aye, except McDonald, who voted no.

The amendment was reported by Mayor Dunn.

Finley was granted permission to explain that he had voted for the amendment not because he believed it to be right, but because he believed a 50-year franchise to be too long a term.

Postmaster Rose was present to state to the council that his assessment had been raised $1,000, which he felt to be excessive and an inequality which many other taxpayers had not suffered. The postmaster had with him receipts for two years, showing that his two lots had in the past been rated on the books with a valuation of $750. As Mr. Rose has erected no buildings in the year he failed to see how the valuation could be changed, the laws of West Virginia establishing a land appraisement no oftener than each 10 years.

Solicitor Marshall examined the receipts, finding that $600 was land valuation and $150 for buildings. The recorder asserted that the increase had been made by County Assessor Melvin.

Richard Banfield was another recalcitrant against increase in assessment, his property having been raised from $2,500 to $2,700.

When the council referred the subject to Attorney Marshall, the solicitor said that Mr. Banfield evidently had a good case in which to petition the county court for adjudication.

Continuing, he said that assessments all over Hancock county had been made by incompetent men and that the valuations made unequal burdens on taxpayers and were simply something iniquitous. He had suggested to the county judge that a competent man be directed by the court to revise all of the building and personal property accounts. But the remedy of Chester property owners was not with their council, but in the county court.

The following bills were ordered paid: Milligan Hardware company, jail cage, $160; Myler Bros., coal, $1.95; Levi Allison, coal, $1.25; Mrs. Jones, scrubbing hall, $1.50.

The Third street grade question was again discussed. Finley stated that it would cost $167 to build a wall along Alex Marshall's property and it would cost over $300 to make a fill. Marshall has changed his mind about wanting a wall. The city may feel unable to settle the question at the present time, but it was decided to act in the next meeting on the matter.

An ordinance draft was read by the solicitor that compels trains run at a speed not exceeding six miles an hour through the town. Railways must plank between the rails at crossings, make suitable approaches to all crossings, proper drains, etc. Flying switches will be no longer tolerated over crossings, etc.

The penalty for each offense will be from $5 to $20.

The "Extra Horse."

A lover of horses recently noticed a custom in France which he thinks ought to be adopted in this country. On every street in France which has a steep grade there is stationed an "extra horse." The law compels draymen and others to make use of this horse until the summit of the hill is reached, and there is a heavy fine for refusing to hire the extra horse at a small fixed rate. Placards by the roadside indicate the point where the extra horse should be taken on and also where he may be dispensed with.

ASSAULTED HIS WIFE

John Linder, an Eighteenth Street Butcher, Is Now Among the Missing.

John Linder, a butcher of lower Eighteenth street, made a cowardly assault on his wife Wednesday night. Over a domestic disagreement his temper was riled and he wreaked out his vengeance by knocking his wife through the front window of the store. She was injured by coming in contact with the glass, but not seriously.

Immediately after the occurrence he fled and has not yet been found by the police who are on the lookout for him. Such actions as this are not unusual for Linder, who has been guilty of similar offenses on many different occasions.

His wife, as a rule, has him arrested and then secures money with which to pay his fine.

The squire has received a voucher from the relief but no money can be secured on it until signed by Colbert. Officer Thorn has been on the lookout for Colbert, but up to date has been unable to locate him. It is supposed that he has taken French leave for his home.

PATIENTLY WAITING

Local People Think They Have a Good Thing In An Emergency Brake.

Mr. Craig, proprietor of a bowling alley on Main street, is eagerly awaiting the outcome of a patent in which he is a stockholder. The patent was granted to D. E. Brockett, of East Liverpool, last spring, but has not yet been issued. It is a device for applying a brake on a street car in an emergency. The brake works automatically and can stop a car at any speed within its length. Some railroad men have inspected it and pronounce it an excellent piece of mechanism. When the patent is issued the stockholders propose to push it and hope to realize a fortune.

CHESTER SOLONS
MET IN SESSION

Ohio Valley Gas Company's Franchise Shorn of Forty of Its Years.

MANY KICKS WERE MADE

By Property Owners Against the Increase in Assessments Which Have Been Added Since Municipal Tax Levy Was Made.

The Chester council last night reduced by amendment, prior to passing to third reading, the Ohio Valley Gas company's franchise from 50 years to 10 years.

Property owners presented in person grievances against increase in assessments.

Councilmen decided to act definitely on the Third street grade at their next meeting.

Initial action was taken providing for regulations and penalties applicable to railway companies.

When the Chester council met last night, after the mayor had shaken hands with the aldermen and other heads of the town, as well as the spectators, he took a seat behind a small square table and proclaimed the opening of the town's legislature. Penalty was postponed on George Arner, who had an engagement at the social hour, for his non-appearance in the chamber of municipal lawmakers, after which Recorder Marshall rattled the minutes in ragtime melody.

The first thing done was to take a fall out of the Ohio Valley Gas company by amending its franchise to be in effect for 10 years instead of 50. Alderman Finley opened the game with a motion to amend the franchise to read 25 years instead of 50. This started a veritable hippodrome in the speech line, each member giving a speech, with the exception of McDonald. It was almost a round robin against the gas company and there was fear for a time that the company would be compelled to tear up its mains and abdicate the town.

W. N. Riley opposed the amendment because he wasn't in favor of so long a franchise as 25 years, and after some well rounded oratorical periods, closing with a recital of Cardinal Wolsey's address to young Cromwell, memorized from Shakespeare's Henry VIII., he proved a statesman.

When Mr. Riley was through with his speech, Marshall promptly arose and moved, as Mr. Finley's motion had received no second, to amend to reduce the life of the franchise to 10 years.

Mr. Finley arose in defense of his position. He admitted that he felt both kindly and unkindly toward the gas company, but felt that his friends were making the thing a little too stout. He explained that the council had a perfect right to reduce the term of years in the franchise, as the informal vote a month ago to pass the ordinance as drafted, was done so, allowing through silent tolerance, the company to lay its mains; but Mr. Finley carefully explained that the term, 50 years, was inserted in the franchise after the discussion and vote had been taken.

It was suggested by Marshall that so long a franchise would interfere with other companies should they choose in time to enter Chester, by giving the Ohio Valley so much of a cinch as 50 years.

A vote was taken on Marshall's amendment which had been seconded by Cochran and all voted aye, except McDonald, who voted no.

The amendment was reported by Mayor Dunn.

Finley was granted permission to explain that he had voted for the amendment not because he believed it to be right, but because he believed a 50-year franchise to be too long a term.

Postmaster Rose was present to state to the council that his assessment had been raised $1,000, which he felt to be excessive and an inequality which many other taxpayers had not suffered. The postmaster had with him receipts for two years, showing that his two lots had in the past been rated on the books with a valuation of $750. As Mr. Rose has erected no buildings in the year he failed to see how the valuation could be changed, the laws of West Virginia establishing a land appraisal no oftener than each 10 years.

Solicitor Marshall examined the receipts, finding that $600 was land valuation and $150 for buildings. The recorder asserted that the increase had been made by County Assessor Melvin.

Richard Banfield was another recalcitrant against increase in assessment, his property having been raised from $2,500 to $2,700.

When the council referred the subject to Attorney Marshall, the solicitor said that Mr. Banfield evidently had a good case in which to petition the county court for adjudication.

Continuing, he said that assessments all over Hancock county had been made by incompetent men and that the valuations made unequal burdens on taxpayers and were simply something iniquitous. He had suggested to the county judge that a competent man be directed by the court to revise all of the building and personal property accounts. But the remedy of Chester property owners was not with their council, but in the county court.

The following bills were ordered paid: Milligan Hardware company, jail cage, $160; Myler Bros., coal, $1.95; Levi Allison, coal, $1.25; Mrs. Jones, scrubbing hall, $1.50.

The Third street grade question was again discussed. Finley stated that it would cost $167 to build a wall along Alex Marshall's property and it would cost over $300 to make a fill. Marshall has changed his mind about wanting a wall. The city may feel unable to settle the question at the present time, but it was decided to act in the next meeting on the matter.

An ordinance draft was read by the solicitor that compels trains run at a speed not exceeding six miles an hour through the town. Railways must plank between the rails at crossings, make suitable approaches to all crossings, proper drains, etc. Flying switches will be no longer tolerated over crossings, etc.

The penalty for each offense will be from $5 to $20.

STRUCK BY A BRICK

A workman at the tin mill was injured this morning while standing beneath a scaffold. A brick dropped a distance of 10 feet, striking him on the head. The man dropped and was unconscious for some time.

The "Extra Horse."

A lover of horses recently noticed a custom in France which he thinks ought to be adopted in this country. On every street in France which has a steep grade there is stationed an "extra horse." The law compels draymen and others to make use of this horse up to the summit of the hill is reached, and there is a heavy fine for refusing to hire the extra horse at a small fixed rate. Placards by the roadside indicate the point where the extra horse should be taken on and also where he may be dispensed with.

WELLSVILLE

ASSAULTED HIS WIFE

John Linder, an Eighteenth Street Butcher, Is Now Among the Missing.

John Linder, a butcher of lower Eighteenth street, made a cowardly assault on his wife Wednesday night. Over a domestic disagreement his temper was riled and he wreaked out his vengeance by knocking his wife through the front window of the store. She was injured by coming in contact with the glass, but not seriously.

Immediately after the occurrence he fled and has not yet been found by the police who are on the lookout for him. Such actions as this are not unusual for Linder, who has been guilty of similar offenses on many different occasions.

His wife, as a rule, has him arrested and then secures money with which to pay his fine.

COLBERT AHEAD

Squire Riley Has Voucher But Cannot Secure Any Money.

A. W. Colbert, the young man who was arrested last Saturday on complaint of Mrs. Wright, for attempting to leave an unpaid board bill, and who was later released by Squire McKenzie upon his, Colbert, giving an order on his relief, has evidently left the city.

The squire has received a voucher from the relief but no money can be secured on it until signed by Colbert. Officer Thorn has been on the lookout for Colbert, but up to date has been unable to locate him. It is supposed that he has taken French leave for his home.

PATIENTLY WAITING

Local People Think They Have a Good Thing In an Emergency Brake.

Mr. Craig, proprietor of a bowling alley on Main street, is eagerly awaiting the outcome of a patent in which he is a stockholder. The patent was granted to D. E. Brockett, of East Liverpool, last spring, but has not yet been issued. It is a device for applying a brake on a street car in an emergency. The brake works automatically and can stop a car at any speed within its length. Some railroad men have inspected it and pronounce it an excellent piece of mechanism. When the patent is issued the stockholders propose to push it and hope to realize a fortune.

PLEADED GUILTY

Harry Termin And Mrs. Clara Green Taken to Lisbon This Morning.

Harry Termin and Mrs. Clara Green, arrested Wednesday by Chief Morrissey, having been charged with falsely living as man and wife by Mrs. S. P. Snively, were given a hearing last night by Mayor Dennis. When asked by the mayor as to their guilt they both replied in the affirmative. They were not able to furnish $200 bond and were again remanded to jail.

Chief Morrissey accompanied them to Lisbon this afternoon, where they will have a hearing before the probate judge tomorrow.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY

Thief Was Detected While Trying to Get Into a Main Street House.

A burglar attempted to make an entrance into the home of Win Denslow on Main street Wednesday evening at about 8 o'clock. Mr. Denslow's little daughter Maude upon going up stairs discovered the wouldbe robber on the roof of the back porch, and was very much frightened. She gave vent to her fright by loud screams and the intruder fled.

A careful search of the premises was made, but no clue was discovered as to his identity.

FLINN "NO I WON'T."

Reply When Asked If He Would Declare For Elkin to Succeed Stone.

SAW PENNSYLVANIA GOVERNOR.

Both Men Declined to Discuss Pitts-
burg Recordship—T. S. Bigelow
Said He Was For Elkin For Governor—News of Ohio, Pa. and W. Va

Philadelphia, Nov. 15.—Governor
William A. Stone is here to meet his wife. He will remain here until she comes from New York, where she is
on a shopping expedition, and then he
will escort her to Harrisburg. Mrs.
Stone's stay in New York is indefinite,
but she may get here today.

It would be possible from these premises to draw the conclusion that Governor Stone's stay in Philadelphia
is likewise indefinite and that he may
leave today, but events in state administration circles have demonstrated that it is best not to be in a hurry
about deciding what is going to happen.

He refused to talk on the rumored
intended removal of Recorder Brown,
of Pittsburgh. He acknowledged Senator Flinn saw him, but denied it was
on politics.

Pittsburg, Nov. 15.—Attorney General Elkin and T. S. Bigelow had a conference here. Bigelow said:

"I will be a delegate to the next
state convention, and will support
John P. Elkin for governor, no matter
what happens in the local matter. I will be there and will vote for him,
you can depend upon it."

Mr. Bigelow also said at one time:
"I am for Governor Stone for United States senator to succeed Senator
Quay."

When Mr. Bigelow was asked, "Will you be for Stone, no matter what happens?" he answered:

"That is a leading question."

Attorney General Elkin said:
"I cannot discuss the Pittsburg matter. I have no opinion to offer as to whether or not Recorder Brown
will be removed. I will only say that if I were governor I would not remove
him."

When Senator Flinn was asked
whether he would declare for Mr.
Elkin for governor he answered:

"No, I won't."

Senator Flinn also said, at one
time:
"I saw the governor and had a long
talk with him. I have nothing else
to say. I am at peace with the world,
even the governor. I have no opinion
to offer in the recordship matter."

ment of sanatoria for the treatment

OVER 160 KNOWN DROWNED.

Fearful Loss of Life From the Storm on the British Coast.

London, Nov. 15.—The loss of a life
boat and 11 of its crew near Yarmouth headed the list of yesterday's wrecks by the continued gale. The life boat was on its way to the rescue
of a distressed vessel when it was struck by a great wave and capsized.
The crew were imprisoned and only
three of them succeeded in making
their escape.

The Norwegian bark Erratic, of Christiana, was wrecked in the vicinity of Saltburn, and eight members of the crew were drowned.

Innumerable minor casualties continue to be reported on all the coasts
of the United Kingdom, marking the
storm as the most disastrous that has ever occurred in many years. Snow
is falling in many parts of the country.

Hundreds of sheep and several shepherds were lost in the storm in
the Westmoreland fells.

PUDDLERS MAY GET RAISE.

Finishers Also Likely to Get a Stiff
Advance.

Pittsburg, Nov. 15.—The first bi-monthly adjustments of the wage
scales of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers
since the settlement of the big strike
are to be held during the next few days.

The sales sheets of the American
Tin Plate company will be examined
on Saturday by one of the officers of
the association and a committee from
the tin plate mills. It is known, however, that there will be no advance in wages, as the price has remained at $4 a box, which is 20 cents below the
minimum of the scale.

The price of tin plate during the strike was above $5 a box, but this
was the rate of the jobbers, the combination not receiving any benefit due
to the increased price caused by the strike.

The meeting on the sheet adjustment will be held early next week at
the Pittsburgh offices of the American Sheet Steel company, in the Vander-
grift building.

No change will be made in wages,
as the company, despite the unusually
high prices paid for sheets during the past two months, continued to fill orders at the old price, which was less than the base of the Amalgamated scale.

The independent manufacturers
who operated since the scale went
into effect on July 1, and were not
affected by the strike, received high
prices for all sheets made, but are not bound to pay a higher wage rate, as
the scale is determined from the sales
sheets of the combination, which
made no change in prices.

There seems to be no doubt but
that the puddlers and the finishers in
the union rolling mills of the country
will be paid a stiff advance in wages
for the closing months of the year.
The price of bar iron has been advanced since the last settlement and
all sales were made at an increased
rate.

tion of the matter.

BEAR RAID ON THE MARKET.

Professional Operators Were Disappointed at Public's Lethargy,
After Nipper Agreement.

New York, Nov. 15.—Professional
speculators were much disappointed
over the effect of Wednesday night's official announcement of the terms of
the settlement of the railroad con-troversey in the northwest. That does not mean necessarily that the settlement does not insure all the benefits
claimed for it. The speculators were bound to sell stocks upon definite announcement in any event. Their disappointment yesterday was due to the
fact that a very light outside demand for stocks was attracted by the announcement. The watchful bears
were keenly alive to the situation,
and when they saw the efforts making
to realize profits they put out extensive short lines to take away the market from those seeking to liquidate,
and then fiercely raided the market
to dislodge stop loss orders and enable them to take profits on the short
side. How large an element the short selling was in the weakness of the
market was disclosed when the bears
began to cover during the last hour.
Substantial recoveries were made in
all the active stocks and at some points among the coalers and the
specialties there were complete recoveries. A notable fact in the day's trading was the comparative immobility
of the United States Steel
stocks. The trans-continental railroad
stocks and some of the Vanderbilts,
which have been under manipulation
recently for advances, were most affected by the selling, although the list
developed weakness throughout during the course of the day. The recent speculation has been largely based
upon the Northern Pacific settlement,
and with the details of that known
the professionals argue that all the
good news was out, while the dis-
quieting condition in the money market made it undesirable to hold stocks. Some of the recent price levels taken in connection with the
terms of the Northern Securities company organization make it evident
that those terms are a disappointment
to the buyers at the prices indicated.
There was a rather dubious feeling
also as to how the trans-continentals
not immediately concerned in the settlement are to benefit by it. The further adjournment of the Burlington directors was made by the bears
to play upon the fears of timid hold-
ers. The money market was firmer
Thursday, both for call and time
loans, the latter showing the effect
of the gold outgo for the first time. It is expected that further gold will be exported on Saturday.

ATTACK ON THE FEDERATION.

Burns Asserted Amalgamated Lost
Strike Because of Treachery of Organized Labor.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 15.—At the national convention of the Knights of
Labor, General Master Workman
Simon Burns submitted largely of an
report, which consisted largely of an attack on the American Federation
of Labor. The general executive committee and Secretary-Treasurer
Hayes also reported. Hayes recommended that the order secure the in-
roduction in congress of laws to control the trusts. He said in part:
"Organized labor must prepare for
the gigantic struggle that is fast approaching, when the very existence
of their organizations will be at stake."
General Master Workman Burns, in
his annual message, said in part:
"It matters not what errors and
mistakes are charged to the officers
and members of the Amalgamated association, the facts are that the steel
companies were victorious, because
of the treachery and failure of organized labor to do their duty. The Amalgamated association expected, at least
the friendship of the officers and
members of the American Federation
of Labor. They received nothing but deception and opposition. It is a question if the Amalgamated association would have entered the contest
under the circumstances if it was not
for the promises made and relied
upon from members of the American Federation of Labor to assist them in
what they believed to be right."

Reply When Asked If He Would Declare For Elkin to Succeed Stone.

SAW PENNSYLVANIA GOVERNOR.

Both Men Declined to Discuss Pitts-
 burg Recordship—T. S. Bigelow
 Said He Was For Elkin For Governor—News of Ohio, Pa. and W. Va

Philadelphia, Nov. 15.—Governor
 William A. Stone is here to meet his wife. He will remain here until she
 comes from New York, where she is
 on a shopping expedition, and then he
 will escort her to Harrisburg. Mrs.
 Stone's stay in New York is indefinite,
 but she may get here today.

It would be possible from these
 premises to draw the conclusion that Governor Stone's stay in Philadelphia
 is likewise indefinite and that he may
 leave today, but events in state administration circles have demonstrated that it is best not to be in a hurry
 about deciding what is going to happen.

He refused to talk on the rumored
 intended removal of Recorder Brown,
 of Pittsburgh. He acknowledged Senator Flinn saw him, but denied it was
 on politics.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 15.—Attorney General Elkin and T. S. Bigelow had a
 conference here. Bigelow said:

"I will be a delegate to the next
 state convention, and will support
 John P. Elkin for governor, no matter
 what happens in the local matter. I
 will be there and will vote for him,
 you can depend upon it."

Mr. Bigelow also said at one time:
 "I am for Governor Stone for United States senator to succeed Senator
 Quay."

When Mr. Bigelow was asked, "Will
 you be for Stone, no matter what happens?" he answered:

"That is a leading question."
 Attorney General Elkin said:

"I cannot discuss the Pittsburgh
 matter. I have no opinion to offer as
 to whether or not Recorder Brown
 will be removed. I will only say that if I were governor I would not remove
 him."

When Senator Flinn was asked
 whether he would declare for Mr.
 Elkin for governor he answered:

"No, I won't."
 Senator Flinn also said, at one
 time:

"I saw the governor and had a long
 talk with him. I have nothing else
 to say. I am at peace with the world,
 even the governor. I have no opinion
 to offer in the recordship matter."

TO PREVENT TUBERCULOSIS.

A Society Organized by Physicians and Others, in Ohio—Outhwaite Chosen as President.

Columbus, O., Nov. 15.—One hundred representative physicians and professional men of Ohio, in the office of the secretary of the state board of health, organized the Ohio
 Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, an association in the interest of humanity. Its object is to lessen the prevalence of tuberculosis by the dissemination of information and by other means to aid in the establishment of sanatoria for the treatment
 and cure of persons afflicted with the disease.

Hon. Joseph H. Outhwaite, of this city, was made president and other officers were elected as follows: Vice president, S. S. Knabenshue, Toledo; corresponding and recording secretary, Dr. Andrew Timberman, Columbus; financial secretary, Dr. B. F.
 Lyle, Cincinnati; treasurer, Hon. R.
 M. Rowand, Columbus.

A board of nine trustees was elected
 as follows: For three-year term,
 Dr. Byron Stampton, Cincinnati; Dr.
 C. O. Probst, Columbus; Dr. H. C.
 Tobey, Toledo. For two-year term,
 G. A. Doren, Columbus; Judge Gilbert
 H. Stewart, Columbus; Dr. A. H.
 Freilberg, Cincinnati. For one-year term, Dr. P. M. Foshay, Cleveland; Dr. W. J. Conklin, Dayton; Prof.
 Caley Staley, Cleveland.

The charter members of the society
 number 250 citizens of Ohio.

OVER 160 KNOWN DROWNED.

Fearful Loss of Life From the Storm on the British
 Coast.

London, Nov. 15.—The loss of a life
 boat and 11 of its crew near Yar-
 mouth headed the list of yesterday's
 wrecks by the continued gale. The
 life boat was on its way to the rescue
 of a distressed vessel when it was
 struck by a great wave and capsized.
 The crew were imprisoned and only
 three of them succeeded in making
 their escape.

The Norwegian bark Erratic, of Christiana, was wrecked in the vicinity of Saltburn, and eight members of
 the crew were drowned.

Innumerable minor casualties continue to be reported on all the coast
 of the United Kingdom, marking the
 storm as the most disastrous that has
 ever occurred in many years. Snow
 is falling in many parts of the country.

Hundreds of sheep and several
 shepherds were lost in the storm in
 the Westmoreland fields.

An incomplete list of the persons who have lost their lives by drowning during the storm already aggregates over 160.

The Russian bark Mercur has been towed into Holyhead with the loss of her sails.

 plies between Belfast and Carrick
 Fergus, on Belfast Lough, foundered
 Nine persons were drowned.

PUDDLERS MAY GET RAISE.

Finishers Also Likely to Get a Stiff
 Advance.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 15.—The first bi-monthly adjustments of the wage
 scales of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers
 since the settlement of the big strike
 are to be held during the next few
 days.

The sales sheets of the American
 Tin Plate company will be examined
 on Saturday by one of the officers of
 the association and a committee from
 the tin plate mills. It is known, however, that there will be no advance in
 wages, as the price has remained at $4 a box, which is 20 cents below the
 minimum of the scale.

The price of tin plate during the
 strike was above $5 a box, but this
 was the rate of the jobbers, the combination not receiving any benefit due
 to the increased price caused by the strike.

The meeting on the sheet adjustment will be held early next week at
 the Pittsburgh offices of the American Sheet Steel company, in the Vander-
 grift building.

No change will be made in wages,
 as the company, despite the unusually
 high prices paid for sheets during the
 past two months, continued to fill orders at the old price, which was less than the base of the Amalgamated
 scale.

The independent manufacturers
 who operated since the scale went
 into effect on July 1, and were not
 affected by the strike, received high
 prices for all sheets made, but are not
 bound to pay a higher wage rate, as
 the scale is determined from the sales
 sheets of the combination, which
 made no change in prices.

There seems to be no doubt but
 that the puddlers and the finishers in
 the union rolling mills of the country
 will be paid a stiff advance in wages
 for the closing months of the year.
 The price of bar iron has been advanced since the last settlement and
 all sales were made at an increased
 rate.

EDDY PROTESTED OVER BULGARIA'S ACTION.

Constantinople, Nov. 15.—In view of the obstacles placed in the way of Consul General Dickinson by the Bulgarian authorities regarding the ransom of Miss Stone, Spencer Eddy, secretary of the United States legation, visited M. Gueschoff, the Bulgarian agent, now here, and made strong representations, in which he urged
 M. Gueschoff to telegraph his government to end the present state of affairs in the interest of a speedy solution of the matter.

BEAR RAID ON THE MARKET.

Professional Operators Were Dis-
 pointed at Public's Lethargy,
 After Nipper Agreement.

New York, Nov. 15.—Professional
 speculators were much disappointed
 over the effect of Wednesday night's
 official announcement of the terms of
 the settlement of the railroad controversy in the northwest. That does not mean necessarily that the settlement does not insure all the benefits
 claimed for it. The speculators were bound to sell stocks upon definite announcement in any event. Their disappointment yesterday was due to the
 fact that a very light outside demand for stocks was attracted by the announcement. The watchful bears
 were keenly alive to the situation,
 and when they saw the efforts making
 to realize profits they put out extensive short lines to take away the market from those seeking to liquidate,
 and then fiercely raided the market
 to dislodge stop loss orders and en-
 able them to take profits on the short
 side. How large an element the short
 selling was in the weakness of the
 market was disclosed when the bears
 began to cover during the last hour.
 Substantial recoveries were made in
 all the active stocks and at some
 points among the coalers and the
 specialties there were complete re-
 coveries. A notable fact in the day's trading was the comparative immobility of the United States Steel
 stocks. The trans-continental railroad
 stocks and some of the Vanderbilts,
 which have been under manipulation
 recently for advances, were most affected by the selling, although the list
 developed weakness throughout during the course of the day. The recent speculation has been largely based
 upon the Northern Pacific settlement,
 and with the details of that known
 the professionals argue that all the
 good news was out, while the dis-
 quieting condition in the money market made it undesirable to hold
 stocks. Some of the recent price
 levels taken in connection with the
 terms of the Northern Securities company organization make it evident
 that those terms are a disappointment
 to the buyers at the prices indicated.
 There was a rather dubious feeling
 also as to how the trans-continental not immediately concerned in the settlement are to benefit by it. The further adjournment of the Burling-
 ton directors was made by the bears
 to play upon the fears of timid hold-
 ers. The money market was firmer
 Thursday, both for call and time
 loans, the latter showing the effect
 of the gold outgo for the first time. It is expected that further gold will be exported on Saturday.

The railroad bond market was weak
 in sympathy with stock. Total sales, par value, $5,691,000.

United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

ATTACK ON THE FEDERATION.

Burns Asserted Amalgamated Lost
 Strike Because of Treachery of Organized Labor.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 15.—At the national convention of the Knights of
 Labor, General Master Workman
 Simon Burns submitted his annual report, which consisted largely of an attack on the American Federation
 of Labor. The general executive committee and Secretary-Treasurer
 Hayes also reported. Hayes recommended that the order secure the introduction in congress of laws to control the trusts. He said in part:

"Organized labor must prepare for
 the gigantic struggle that is fast ap-
 proaching, when the very existence
 of their organizations will be at
 stake."

General Master Workman Burns, in
 his annual message, said in part:

"It matters not what errors and
 mistakes are charged to the officers
 and members of the Amalgamated association, the facts are that the steel
 companies were victorious, because
 of the treachery and failure of organized labor to do their duty. The Amalgamated association expected, at least
 the friendship of the officers and
 members of the American Federation
 of Labor. They received nothing but deception and opposition. It is a question if the Amalgamated association would have entered the contest
 under the circumstances if it was not
 for the promises made and relied
 upon from members of the American Federation of Labor to assist them in
 what they believed to be right."

SIX KNOWN DEAD.

Others May Have Perished In Mine Disaster, at Pocahontas, Va.

TWENTY-FIVE INJURED RESCUED.

Explosions Followed Fire—8 or 10 More Men Were In Mine, Unless They Escaped—Killed While Trying to Rescue a Body.

Bluefield, W. Va., Nov. 15.—Six dead bodies were taken from the Baby mine at Pocahontas, Va. Several other persons were unaccounted for and 25 persons were rescued, more or less severely burned.

Fire Followed by Explosions.

At 3 o'clock yesterday morning it was discovered that the Baby mine of the Pocahontas Colliery company at Pocahontas, Va., was on fire. An alarm was sent in and the fire company responded promptly. In a very short time after the fire fighters had reached the mouth of the mines and were attempting to extinguish the flames, some of the firemen and others having rushed inside of the mines to ascertain the extent of the trouble and to assist miners entombed therein, a terrific explosion occurred and many miners and their friends were more or less injured. It is supposed that the mines caught fire from a defective electric light wire. Six bodies had been recovered up to 6 p. m. last night, and it is uncertain how many more are dead, though it was known that there were several, perhaps eight or ten men, still in the mines, unless they succeeded in making their escape through the Tug river entrance. Twenty-five persons had been rescued, all more or less burned, some seriously and perhaps fatally. The injured were carried to their homes in wagons and all the physicians in Pocahontas had been busy attending the injured. One or two other explosions followed that of the early morning and others were hourly expected. The mine was still burning and clouds of smoke were constantly issuing from its mouth. The fan had been stopped and as soon as possible to do so the mine was to be re-entered with the hope of extinguishing the fire.

The list of the dead so far recovered are:

The Dead.

Louis Woolwine.
 John Bernhart.
 Will Montgomery.
 M. D. Koontz.
 Hungarian Polit.
 A Hungarian named Urico.
 Woolwine, Montgomery and Koontz were killed while trying to rescue and bring out a dead body. Yesterday evening it was impossible to secure the names of those injured. It was also impossible to estimate the amount of damage to the mines.

THOUGHT TROOPS WERE NEEDED.

Kentucky Adjutant General so Recommended—Miners Excited Over Court Order.

Earlington, Ky., Nov. 15.—Adjutant General David B. Murray, who had been in Madisonville looking into the mining situation, telephoned the governor recommending that troops again be sent to Hopkins county.

There is agitation among the union miners over news of the restraining order against officers and members of the United Mine Workers, granted by Judge Evans in the United States court at Louisville, to restrain the union men from camping on or "with-in gunshot" of the property of the mine owners.

The coal operators, non-union employees and the business men generally are pleased with the news of the injunction, and express the belief that general and permanent relief will come of it.

The action of the operators came as a surprise to the union miners and to everybody else. Most of the union officials were out of the city.

It is almost as presumptuous to think you can do nothing as to think you can do everything.—Phillips Brooks.

TODL IN EAST LIVERPOOL

The Renown of the Great Author And Physician, Dr. A. W. Chase, is Accredited By East Liverpool People.

It's by the words of the people that Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills have come into such active demand. The announcements for this medicine are not dependent on the testimony of people so far away that they cannot be authenticated—It's home evidence that convinces, because easily substantiated with the simple statement of things done and told in the words of the relieved.

Mr. H. Rushton, of 337 Market street, East Liverpool, O., says: "Before I used Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Larkins' drug store, corner Sixth and East Market streets, I was bilious—head felt aching and dull. The effect of the medicine was to regulate the liver—clear the head—give a feeling of strength, energy and new life. This I think justifies a recommendation."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine company, Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

DEWEY ON THE INQUIRY.

Says He Would Rather Have Fought Battle of Manila Over.

In referring to the Schley court of inquiry Admiral Dewey spoke in eulogistic terms of his associates on the court, says a Washington dispatch to the New York Herald. "Admiral Benham," he said, "is a natural lawyer, and Admiral Ramsay is a most conscientious jurist. They have been of great assistance in the case, which has now been in progress seven weeks."

"Under ordinary circumstances it is customary for the officer of the court, the judge advocate, to write the findings of a court of inquiry." The eyes of the entire country are on this court, however, and inasmuch as Admiral Schley was represented by counsel the findings will be prepared by myself and my associates.

"We have been at work many weeks," the admiral continued, "and the court is now coming to the hardest part of its work—that of deciding upon the testimony and reaching conclusions on the various questions. I have able associates, however, and realize that we are on trial before the country as well as Admiral Schley. Two able, better or more honest men could not have been secured than Admirals Benham and Ramsay."

"The court," the admiral added, "will probably consider each precept separately and in sequence and after reviewing the testimony on each express the conclusion reached." He would recommend this plan to his associates, he explained, because the American people would want to know the court's reasons in detail, and in his opinion the people were entitled to know them.

That the duty is not a pleasant one to the admiral was indicated by his reply to an observation that he was looking in better health than he was when he returned from Manila.

"I would rather have steamed into Manila bay again," the admiral replied, "than to have been ordered to preside over this court."

THE AUTO IN POLITICS.

Seth Low's Faithful Chauffeur In the Campaign.

When Seth Low spoke the closing words of the last speech of his campaign, says the New York Sun, he probably heaved a sigh of relief. Outside the hall, seated on the high box of a bright new electric hansom, Thomas F. Curley, the man who has piloted Mr. Low around the city to the different meeting places at breakneck speed, sighed in a similar manner, glad that it was all over.

Curley's work, though not so intellectual as that of his employer, has been none the less wearing. He has carried the candidate from one meeting to another every night, has made up lost time and has brought Mr. Low to the various halls so punctually that Mr. Low has acquired a reputation for promptness. Not a little of the credit for his being always on time is due to Curley, the man who piloted his auto.

Never before have the candidates in a municipal campaign addressed so many meetings each evening as this year. "A whirlwind campaign" some have styled it.

Four years ago the feat would have been impossible. A team of horses could scarcely make the speed necessary, but the automobile revolutionized campaigning. This fall it has been a common occurrence for a candidate to speak at five or six meetings of an evening, some of them up town, some down town, some even in Brooklyn.

Curley has carried Mr. Low a good many miles this fall and always at a rapid rate of speed, but not an accident has occurred. He says, however, that he has had enough of it and is glad that the breakneck runs are over.

Merely Dropped an Aspirate.

In London the other day J. C. Stevens, an auctioneer, sold a great auk's egg, which brought a very respectable sum, £252. That, however, large as it is, is not near the record price paid, not long ago, for one of these curios, which brought 315 guineas. Still, that was considered the finest of the seventy-two specimens now said to be in existence. Rather an amusing incident occurred during this last sale. Mr. Stevens was met by an old lady who gravely informed him she had a newly laid auk's egg. When an explanation was forthcoming by the production of this extraordinary curio, it was found that the extinct bird had not dropped an egg, but that the lady had merely dropped her aspirate.

Double Suicide System Broken.

A grand jury has set a new precedent in the matter of persons who plan double suicides and fail to keep the agreement, says a Chicago dispatch. Dr. Oliver Burnett, a dentist, who began an intrigue with Mrs. Charlotte Nichols which ended in a plan for a double suicide and the death of Mrs. Nichols, has been indicted for murder. The complaint against him was that he knew of the intentions of Mrs. Nichols to end her life and was therefore accessory before the fact.

The Father-in-law Trouble.

Bernard J. Fox of Haverstraw says he could get along all right with his mother-in-law, but that in his case it is the father-in-law who has caused all the trouble. Mr. Fox has sued Frederick Mardorf for $20,000 for the alleged alienation of his wife's affections and for forcibly preventing him from living with her. Natives of Haverstraw think he will win the $20,000 or his wife.

Paid Old Fish Bill in Potatoes.

William Covert bought some fish of Albert Bennett about twenty-eight years ago at Freehold, N. J. The fish were worth $3, and Covert paid Bennett $1.50 on account. A few days ago Covert gave Bennett a barrel of sweet potatoes worth $2.50 in settlement of the old fish bill.

"COEDS" IN MEN'S TOGS.

They Play a Game of Football in Masculine Attire.

Clad in all the accouterments of the modern football warrior, twenty-two "coeds" who live in Pearson's hall, one of the women's dormitories of Northwestern university, battled on a football gridiron marked out in the large garret of the building, says a Chicago dispatch.

It was the freshmen against the sophomores. The sophomores triumphed at last, sending Olive Rippeteau over the freshmen's goal line, and Margaret Cockle boosted the ball between the movable goal posts.

Score: Sophomores, 6; freshmen, 0.

All the necessary preparations had been going on at Pearson's hall for a week. The girls who had been chosen to fight on the gridiron for the glory of their class singled out members of the varsity eleven from whom they might borrow football togs. The members of the upper classes sided with their usual proteges—seniors with sophomores and juniors with freshmen—and wagers were laid on the favorite team. As a result of the match the seniors will have candy enough to last them a week.

Nearly all of the spectators were dressed in masculine garments, also borrowed. Miss Ollie Stevenson, who weighs 180 pounds, captained the freshmen team, while Miss Rippeteau led the sophomores.

Novel Food Carrier.

A new device for carrying food has been introduced in Bellevue hospital, New York, from plans by D. George Taylor Stewart, the superintendent. It is about four feet in height and is six feet long and made of aluminum. It has twelve compartments or receptacles for food, and at the bottom is a copper tank which is kept filled with boiling water. It is on six wheels, so arranged that it can be carried up and down stairs without tipping it. The machine will do the work of several women who were used to carry food to the different wards.

A Last Joke.

John D. Long, in the Massachusetts campaign of 1878, was making his first run for governor against General Ben Butler, who had captured the Democratic nomination, and Judge Josiah G. Abbott, who was the candidate of the old line Democrats.

The late Judge Thompson was making a speech for Abbott before a big Democratic audience and, after praising the candidate as a jurist and a statesman, asked sarcastically, "And now, who is this John L. Long?" No one answering, he proceeded: "They say he has made a translation of Homer's 'Iliad'! What g-g-good is that to us? All Democrats read Homer in the original."

At this the person to whom the judge was telling the story laughed, but the judge continued: "Th-th-that's not the real joke at all! The real joke is that not a m-m-man in the audience so much as smiled!"

When Frenchmen Were Germans.
The name of France is derived from the Franch, or Franks, a people of Germany who seized that part of the country near the Rhine and settled there. Later on they subdued Paris and made that the royal seat of their increasing empire.

The origin of other geographical names is interesting and will serve to enlighten us when we read of, for instance, Hibernia for Ireland. Hibernia is said to be derived from a Phoenician word meaning "farthest habitation," there being no country known to them west of Erin.

Portugal obtained its name from Porto, the haven or port where the Gauls landed their stores. This is Oporto, called by the Portuguese O Porto (the port). The town was given as a dowry to Teresa when she married Henry de Lorraine, who styled himself Earl of Portugal because the place was known as the portus Gallorum (the port of the Gauls). The name was finally extended to the whole country.

Russia took its denomination from the Rossi, or Russi, a people of the south of Russia, who possessed themselves of the country in the declining days of the Greek empire. Being the predominant inhabitants, they imposed their name on all the rest.

His Unlucky Day.

Borrowell—Well, he refused to accommodate me with a loan this morning because it was Friday.—Philadelphia Record.

They offer stylish gentlemen an opportunity to secure most fashionable pure woolen garments at a ridiculously low price, quality taken into consideration. A word to the wise is sufficient. When Frenchmen Were Germans. The name of France is derived from the Franch, or Franks, a people of Germany who seized that part of the country near the Rhine and settled there. Later on they subdued Paris and made that the royal seat of their increasing empire.

The origin of other geographical names is interesting and will serve to enlighten us when we read of, for instance, Hibernia for Ireland. Hibernia is said to be derived from a Pheonician word meaning "farthest habitation," there being no country known to them west of Erin.

Portugal obtained its name from Porto, the haven or port where the Gauls landed their stores. This is Oporto, called by the Portuguese O Porto (the port). The town was given as a dowry to Teresa when she married Henry de Lorraine, who styled himself Earl of Portugal because the place was known as the portus Gallorum (the port of the Gauls). The name was finally extended to the whole country.

Russia took its denomination from the Rossi, or Russi, a people of the south of Russia, who possessed themselves of the country in the declining days of the Greek empire. Being the predominant inhabitants, they imposed their name on all the rest.

Which have arrived a month later than the manufacturers promised them to us, and which, owing to the extremely mild weather, we refused to accept so late in the season. The makers asked us to accept them at a considerable reduction, one that would justify us holding a sale, to which we agreed. They are suits intended to sell for $20.00 and $22.00, and overcoats intended for the same prices. Every late fad is included. They offer stylish gentlemen an opportunity to secure most fashionable pure woolen garments at a ridiculously low price, quality taken into consideration. A word to the wise is sufficient. Choice.

East Liverpool's Greatest Boys' Store.

This scene depicts what we expected—snow and wintry blasts, yet here we have the 15th of November with the weather so mild that winter stocks are still on hand which should have been disposed of long ago. You see, we made the greatest preparations of our career—greater stocks, anticipating greater business, and we propose in this sale to turn much of it into cash at prices that must crowd the store from early morning to closing time.

5.00 For rich $6.50; $7.00 and $7.50 Suits, Reefers, Top Coats, Russian Overcoats, Etc.

True, for this great sacrifice we can only afford to take the broken lots, such as are here in small quantities. One, two, three, four, five or six of a kind, perhaps, but they are the smartest styles and best productions, among which may be found all sizes for lads 2 1/2 to 16 years of age. Suits in an endless variety of styles. Plain red, plain blue, plain green, plain grays in Russian Overcoats, and blue Chinchilla Reefers, and handsome little Top-Coats with Velvet Collars, just like papa's. A great collection of greatest bargains.
